

COOK PURE GHEE

About The Product

- It has a natural golden yellow colour and is made only from the finest cow's milk
- Virtually free of moisture, does not contain any additives, preservatives, or flavours, foreign fats, or other impurities
- Does not contain any milk solid. Hence, it can be heated to higher temperatures without burning and smoking
- It has a high smoke point, which makes it the best oil for stir-frying and deep-frying
- Ideal for all types of cooking, stir-frying, grilling, roasting, and sautéing. Recommended for ice-cream, processed cheese, recombined dairy products, confectionary, and bakery applications
